Reading And Writing

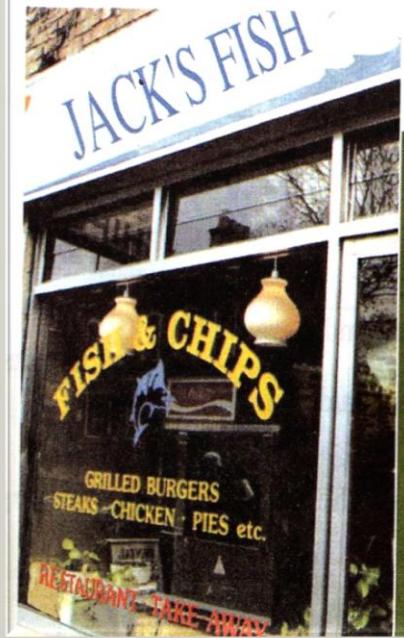

Step one: The teacher invites the learners to open their books on page 32, look at the photos and try to interpret them. He may interact with the learners then explains the instructions of the "Task"

→ Read and check

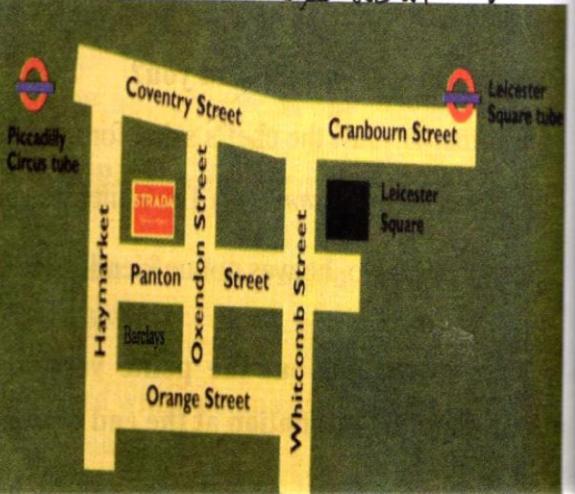

→ Task1p32: Guess where the sentence on the right comes from. Circle the letter of the correct answer.

There is no food more delicious than the one you're served at Jack's Fish and Chips corner.

① Look at the picture and guess where the sentence on the right comes from. Circle the letter of the correct answer.

There's no food more delicious than the one you're served at Jack's fishy corner.

- ♣ Conversation about restaurants between two friends;
- ♣ Restaurant advertising leaflet.
- ♣ Cookery book.

Step two: The teacher checks the learners' answers then explains the instructions of "Task2"

→ Task 2p32: Read the text then check your answer.

The idea of the text is an advertisement and the slogan come from a restaurant advertising leaflet.

You like hot food, don't you? And you surely have dreamed of eating true English food, haven't you? Isn't it time to make your dream come true at Jack's Fish and Chips Corner? (§1)

Come and enjoy delicious, spicy, nutritious seafood and friendly fast service at the most convenient restaurant in London. (§2)

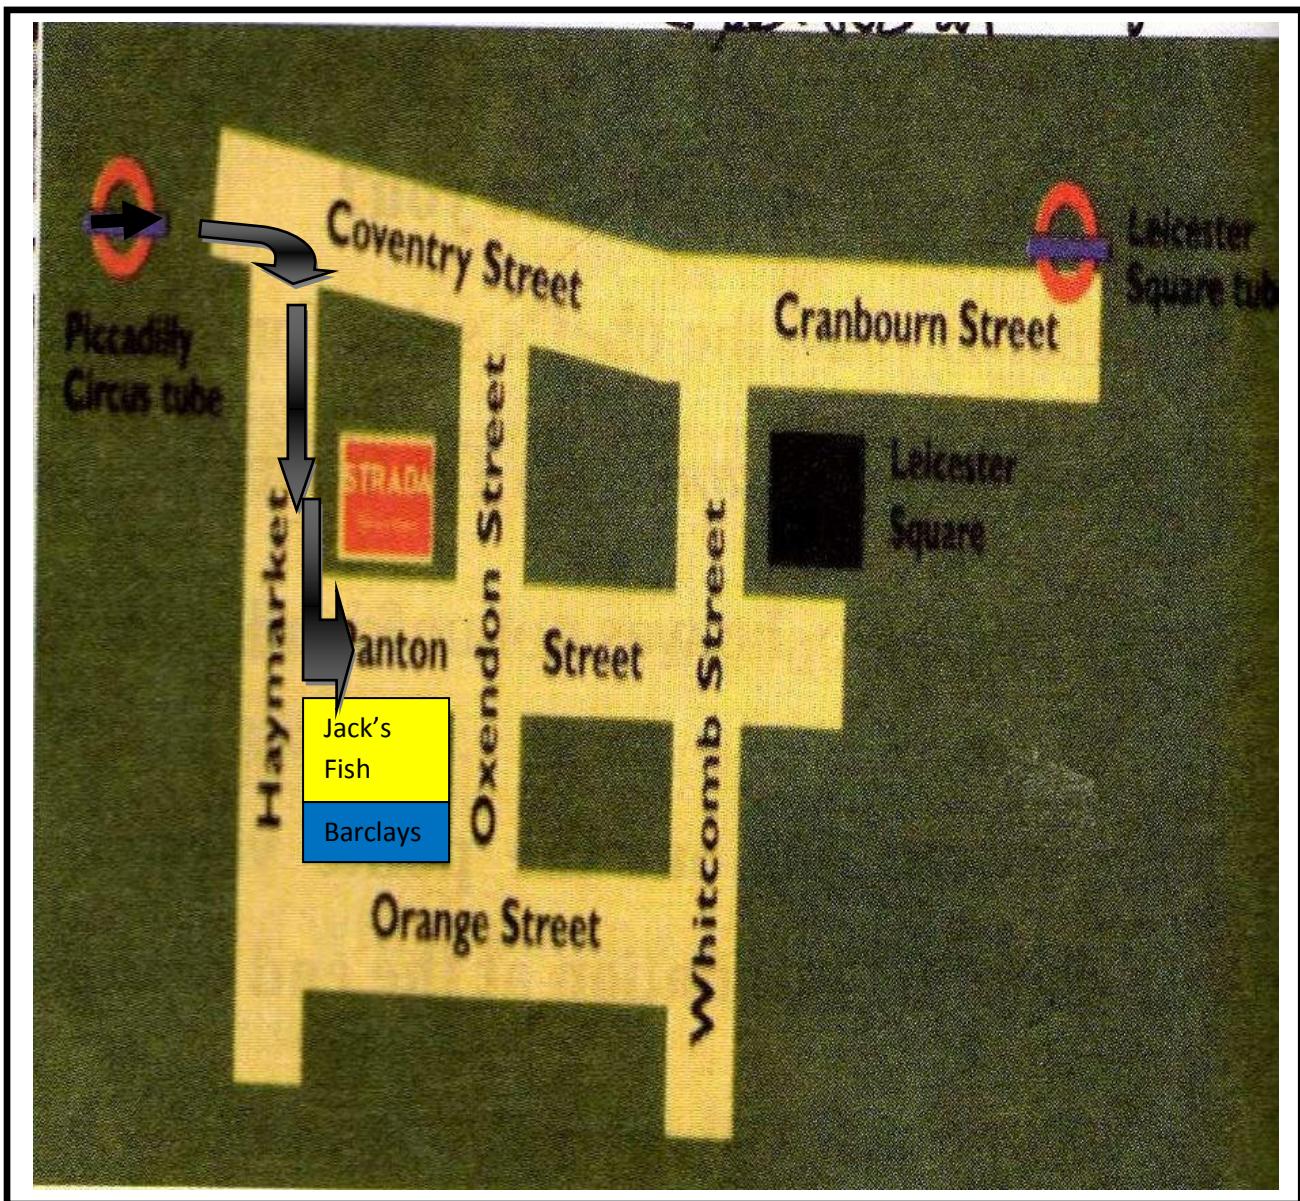

Where will you find us? Take the tube to Picadilly Circus. Turn right into Haymarket Street when you go out of the Picadilly Circus tube station. We are at the corner of Haymarket Street and Panton Street, next to the Barclays bank. (§3)

Step three: The teacher asks the learners to go back to the text and to the advertisement and try to do the "task".

→ Task3p33: Read the ad then locate Jack's Fish and Chips Corner on the map.

Step five: The teacher asks the learners to look at "Task4p33" then take their rough copy books and do the "task".

→ Task4p33: Read again the "ad", and then answer the following questions:

① Read the advertisement on the previous page and locate Jack's Fish and Chips Corner on the map included in the advertising leaflet.

② Read again the advertisement on the previous page and answer the following questions.

- Does the author of the advertisement expect an answer to his/her tag questions or not?
- Would you read the tag questions with a falling or a rising intonation if you presented the advertisement on the radio? Use arrows.
- Which of the paragraphs (§1,2,3) in the advertisement simply give (s) information?
- Which paragraphs try to persuade customers to go and eat at Jack's Fish and Chips Corner?

♣ The author does not expect an answer to his /her tag question. He uses the question to seek the reader's agreement.

♣ I would read it with a falling intonation if I presented the same advertisement on radio.

♣ Paragraph three gives information.

♣ Paragraph two and one try to persuade /convince customers to go and eat at Jack's Fish and Fish Corner.

Step six: The teacher asks the learners to open their books on page 101 and look at the explanation of the teacher, he should lead them to discriminate between "fact" and "opinion".

Step seven: The teacher explains the "task", and then invites the learners to do the work in pairs.

→ Task 5p101: Which of the sentences state "facts" or "opinions"? [Distinguish between facts and opinions"]

③ A text often contains facts and opinions. Which of the following sentences from the advertisement state facts and which of them give opinions?

- A. There is no food more delicious than the one you're served at Jack's Fish and Chips Corner. → opinion
- B. We are at the corner of Haymarket Street and Panton Street. → fact
